1 almost a proxy battle between different groups. I get it,
2 you get it. But it's a lawsuit. We've gotta honor the 3 lawsuit. We have to honor the rules. It's been here for 4 a year.

5           What do I need to do or order to get y'all to the 6 point very soon so that you can represent to the Court, we 7 have tendered everything that we have in -- that's within 8 our care, custody and control and it's consistent with the 9 requests that plaintiffs made? That's what I want to 10 order. So is there anything helpful I can include in that 11 order that gets that done?

12           MR. ROGERS: Your Honor, I'm going through my 13 memory, but I believe based on the work that we have done
14 in the last few weeks that we are between 96 and 99
15 percent done with all production. We, I believe, now 16 either have control of or have the ability to access those 17 e-mail addresses which we have represented we have the 18 ability to do. And I believe that if the Court issued an 19 order with a date certain that was a short but reasonable
20 timeframe, that we could meet it.

21           THE COURT: Like what?

22           MR. ROGERS: Thirty days. I don't even think it
23 would necessarily take that long, but I would prefer that,
24 given some of the other things that we're dealing with in 25 our office.

1           THE COURT: I'll offer this comment on Llano
2 County resources. Listen, I'm not -- I'm the last to 3 willy-nilly spend taxpayer money on things. I don't like 4 doing that. But it does strike me, this is a crisis for 5 Llano County right now and leadership needs to provide the 6 resources to deal with the crisis. Whether it was a
7 bridge that falls or something that happens to a roadway,
8 a crisis would be dealt with. That's not happening. I
9 can tell that with a year's worth of back-and-forth on the 10 simplest issue, which is the exchange of relevant e-mails.
11 I mean, it's stunning how this issue comes up in every 12 case, but in this case, it warrants court time to resolve 13 it.

14           So when, 30 days? Let me ask you this. The 15 order that y'all have given me with -- in the motion, is 16 it one of those orders that's not very helpful? Or is it 17 an order that, if violated, is airtight enough for the 18 application of sanctions on either a rolling or daily
19 basis? I mean, Llano County's going to have decide who 20 they want to pay, an IT expert to answer these questions
21 in a timely manner or the court through fines and 22 sanctions, which I don't want to do. I don't do that that 23 often.

24           So is 30 days, first of all, is that reasonable?

25           MS. LEONIDA: Thirty days is fine. And, your

1 THE COURT: Time out. Y'all didn't ask for their 2 passwords until last week?

3 MR. ROGERS: I don't believe that's correct, your 4 Honor. I think we had been trying to locate which 5 addresses we already had passwords for that were 6 controlled through the library itself, and many of the 7 employees for some of the Yahoo accounts had separated
8 some time ago.

9 THE COURT: I'm going to tell you what I told you
10 before. I believe everything you're telling me but what I
11 do also -- this is what I hear. Llano County hasn't 12 prioritized this. This -- whether it's you or Mr.
13 Mitchell, I don't know, nobody's prioritized getting this 14 done. I appreciate what you've told me that you've worked 15 in good faith. Maybe you have. But a year later, on the 16 simplest of issues to be here tells me that you haven't.
17 You haven't done so.

18 So here's all I'm going to do. Y'all send me an 19 order, it's gotta be tight compliance within 30 days, end
20 of a business day, and then, I'll take that and review it
21 and it's going to include a sanctions warning. Either pay 22 an IT expert to resolve these issues and get it done or 23 you're going to be paying the federal court system. I
24 don't want to do either one of those things. Just get it 25 done.
